

Praying with Poetry

We will share ways in which poetry can lead to prayer by exploring the thoughts, feelings and experiences in selected poems, as well as their images, rhythms and capacity to surprise. Poems used will come from a wide range of poets including Mary Oliver, R.S. Thomas, Gerard Manly Hopkins, Jessica Powers, Bonnie Thurston and Denise Levertov. There will be time for quiet reflection. Participants are invited to bring along a favourite poem to share. It need not be one that leads to prayer.

Date: Saturday 8 July 2017 Cost: $30.00
10:00am - 3:30pm

Facilitator: Glenda Bourke sgs Morning Tea provided.
BYO lunch

Good Samaritan Sister Glenda Bourke, has taught at Yarra Theological Union in Melbourne for many years. She is well respected as a teacher and scholar with qualifications in Arts, Education, Theology and Scripture.

Bookings by Friday, 30 June 2017
Phone: 9484 6208 or email: mtstbenedict@goodsams.org.au

Mount St Benedict Centre

449d Pennant Hills Road, Pennant Hills (Entrance via Hull Road)

